Donald's Dream

Book6: p.11-15 ♪2: p.66-69 CD③④

Donald dreams he catches a fish
 And then he catches another.
 And the second fish he catches is
 Much bigger than the other.
 And number three is bigger still,
 And so is number four.
 But Donald keeps on fishing
 Because he stills wants
 More fish, more fish, more fish,
 More and more and more!

Then Donald catches number five
 And number six and seven.
 And still he keeps on catching fish
 Until he has eleven.
 And every fish he catches is
 Much bigger than before.
 But Donald keeps on fishing
 Because he still wants
 More fish, more fish, more fish,
 More and more and more!

Pre Lesson6 (TAC:No.301~330)

Now number twelve, she is so big
 She pulls him into the water.
 And as she pulls his boat away,
 He's sorry that he caught her.
 Without a fish, without a boat,
 He sadly swims to shore.
 And Donald keeps on thinking,
 Oh, why did I want
 More fish, more fish, more fish,
