

Mickey the Zookeeper

Book11: p.4-9 ♪4: p.42-47 CD⑮←Sing Along!4

Every morning, Mickey the Zookeeper
Wakes up early and gets out of bed.
He washes his face and puts on his clothes-
Then takes two buckets and goes to the shed

To get breakfast for the animals-
The animals that live in the zoo.
For every morning, the animals
All eat a big breakfast the same as we do.

Every morning, Mickey the Zookeeper
Takes out his key and unlocks the door.
He picks up the buckets and walks right inside
And fills them with peanuts from bags on the floor

As breakfast for the animals-
The animals that live in the zoo.
For every morning, the animals
All eat a big breakfast the same as we do.

One cold morning, Mickey the Zookeeper,
Woke up early and got out of bed.
He washed his face and put on his clothes-
Then took two buckets and went to the shed

To get breakfast for the animals-
The animals that live in the zoo.
For every morning, the animals
All eat a big breakfast the same as we do.

That cold morning, Mickey the zookeeper
Took out his key and unlocked the door.
He picked up the buckets and walked right inside
And ... What?! ...
Someone had opened the bags on the floor!
